LEARNING AT Home

COVID-19 RESPONSE

Thank You First Grade for Presenting Chapel (5/13/20)

Thank you to Mrs. Engelbrecht's first grade class will be leading chapel on Wednesday, May 13th. Mrs. Kaiser read the story The Invisible String by Patrice Karst and Mrs. Engelbrecht shared our connection to one another and to Jesus Christ while we are apart. We are proud of the students and families who participated in this service. Be sure to watch it: First Grade Chapel 5/13/20

Kindergarten Leading Chapel on 5/20/20

Mrs. Seling's class will be leading next week's chapel. The service will be pre-recorded and available at the Our Savior Facebook and Our Savior YouTube Channel on Wednesday, May 20th.

The Our Savior Faculty THANKS YOU

thank you!

"As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

Our faculty thanks all parents, grandparents, and guardians for their love, their commitment, their communication, and their grace as we navigated distance learning these ten weeks of school. Little did we know what joys and challenges we would encounter in this journey. You have provided unconditional love and nurtured faith experiences while working, teaching, and overseeing your households. Our school family has been amazing and encouraging to work with, from Zoom class meetings to reading and projects. Thank you for your partnership in unprecedented times.

May Parent-Teacher Conferences Continue

Teachers are setting up appointments with students and parents this month. Look for an email invitation from your child's teacher. Our intention is to provide strengths and growth of your child during the year and convey our appreciation for your partnership and support all year long. Thank you for participating in this closing activity for your child's school year.

May /June School Events - Save the Date

- No School or Zoom Meetings on Monday, May 25th -- Memorial Day
- Last week of Instruction for the 2019-20 School Year -- May 26-29
- End-of-the-Year Chapel (Pre-recorded) on Friday, May 29th

Pastor Wangelin will lead our closing chapel. This worship experience will be made available at the Our Savior Facebook and Our Savior YouTube Channel.

- Virtual Awards Assembly (Pre-recorded) on Thursday, June 4th

This experience will include reflections from the school year, all-year awards and recognitions, and video memories of the school year. This will be made available at the Our Savior Facebook and Our Savior YouTube Channel.

- Report Cards will be mailed home the week of June 8th

Student Belonging Pickup and Textbook/Technology Return

We are tentatively looking at arranging a pickup student supplies and belongings and return of school materials (library books, textbooks, borrowed technology) the week of June 1st. We are working with our staff to gather materials. We desire to provide a safe, healthy, and efficient way to collect and distribute. Thank you for your patience. Any questions or needs may be shared with your child's homeroom teacher.

Miss Drinan shares on "Why I Teach" in Blog Publication

Earlier this Spring Miss Drinan shared her passion and joy for working with students. In this Concordia University-Ann Arbor blog <https://blog.cuaa.edu/why-i-teach-mackenzies-story/>, Drinan shares her teaching experience, "Teaching is the most meaningful thing that I could imagine myself doing, and I get to do it every day. It's a blessing, and it's so cool to watch my students grow." Thank you Miss Drinan for your impact and service to our Our Savior School family!
